Chaplain's Report: (Fr. Pete)

Father Pete reported that things are getting back to normal but not 100% during Holy week.

Father said he has good news. We are heading into our 75th Anniversary of IHM Parish. The main event will be held Sunday, October 23rd at 3pm. It will be held at HPU's new conference center. This is the only facility in High Point that can hold all our parishioners. There will be a Mass followed by a reception including heavy hors d'oeuvre. We will have 1 Mass on that Sunday for handicap all other Masses will be cancelled.

The hall going into the Church from the PLEC will be our Heritage Site. The hall will include the stained-glass window from the entrance of the old Church, Rick Boedicker had it framed. This will be hung in the center of the hall. To the right and the left will be statues of Mary and Joseph that come from the old Church. Father is having made 2 collages of pictures, 1 will include the 1957 Charter of our Council. He will also take care of light for the hall. Tom Flamm is in charge of this project.

Eight total events are being planned including Stained-glass windows for the narthex of the Church. We will be redoing the area where the Holy Family is, Thanks to the Idertons. The statues will be moved back and the area beautified.

Father is having banners made for all the light poles in the parking lot. These banners have been donated, but will need help hanging them is Mid-August.

Father suggested the Knights wear the new uniforms for the main event on October 23rd.
