Grand Knight's Report: (John Mullin)

- Thank you from Fr Tom for Christmas party
Thank you from Room at the Inn for LAMB donation
Thank you from IHM for coats donation
- Tom Burke was honored as Knight of the Month in recognition of his 62 years membership and his many works of charity.
- Alternate delegates are requested for the Knights of Columbus State convention May 3-5 in Durham. We will use the flyer for the 9/13 Oblates Golf Tournament for the convention booklet.
- In the absence of the Financial Secretary, John said he would accept dues.
- John introduced pending transfer Henry Affeldt who further introduced himself and his many years of Knights of Columbus 3rd & 4th degree activities.

PROGRAMS AND EVENTS

- Bob Korabek delivered a tribute to Bob Lodding who lost his long battle on 2/8/24 with Judy and Jessica (daughter) present. He retold the story of his “Chuck” nickname given by Bob and George Coppedge.
- LAMB – Paul Zito reported $1500 at collection locations.
- Field Insurance Agent has conflicts on Friday nights. He could be a possible outreach for Hispanic recruiting.
- Rick Boedicker reported on this years’ opportunity to continue with our major fundraiser at the 62 Rockers home concession schedule. Also Carolina Core Soccer will have games on some Wednesdays and Saturdays when Rockers are not in town. More to follow.
- Rick also reported that 9/13 will be the date for the 27th annual Oblates golf tournament, this year to be at Jamestown Park. Save the date and look for registration form attached to minutes.
- A motion was made to award $500 for Seminarian Scholarships as requested by Fr Baiju. This was tabled pending review of funds that may have already been committed.
- Rosary check
